

Summary of key findings

The overall Young Hackney service:

- 371 respondents (90%) felt Young Hackney provides a good service
- 12 respondents (3%) felt Young Hackney does not provide a good service

Accreditation:

- 182 respondents (44%) have achieved an accreditation
- 145 respondents (35%) have not achieved an accreditation

Experience with Young Hackney:

- 230 respondents (56%) have enjoyed their experience with Young Hackney
- 112 respondents (27%) felt their experience with Young Hackney was good

Safety:

- 134 respondents (32%) felt very safe traveling to the centre
- 184 respondents (46%) felt safe travelling to the centre

- 191 respondents (46%) felt very safe in the centre
- 162 respondents (39%) felt safe in the centre

- 112 respondents (27%) felt very safe in the area they live in
- 185 respondents (45%) felt safe in the area they live in

- 343 respondents (83%) would ask for help if they felt unsafe
- 38 respondents (9%) would not ask for help if they felt unsafe

Issues affecting young people living in Hackney

The top three:

- Knife crime (120 respondents)
- Affordable homes (77 respondents)
- Bullying (52 respondents)

Campaigns which are important to young people

The top three:

- Crime awareness (124 respondents)
- Affordable homes for young people (96 respondents)
- Education about racism in schools (80 respondents)

Activities to include to a school curriculum

The top three:

- Practical life skills (104 respondents)
- Career information (94 respondents)
- Personal finances and banking (83 respondents)

The key themes from the comments:

- Activities provided are useful and interesting, but want more options provided such as cooking, camping, trips and watching movies.

Young people would like accreditation in more sports such as football, rock climbing and netball. In addition to this in culture and arts such as film and dance.