

Micawber Street - Proposed cycle contraflow lane between Wenlock Road and Shepherdess walk

New raised junction to slow down the approaching traffic

New contraflow cycle lane to improve accessibility for cyclists between Wenlock Road and Shepherdess Walk

New raised entry table and footway extension with improved pedestrian crossing and new trees

New cycle only signals and early release for cyclists to be installed

Existing footway to be extended and refurbished around the junction and pedestrian crossings to be improved. New trees to be planted

New 'no-entry' signs except cycles to be installed

Existing raised entry table as part of the recently implemented junction upgrade works

Early release for cyclists to be introduced on both sides of Shepherdess Walk and on Murray Grove

